

Draft Agenda as of June 27, 2019 and subject to change

September 16, 2019
Noon–1 p.m.	Workshop Check-In and Registration
1–1: 15 p.m.	Welcome and Overview TBD, Ohio State University Dan Duncan, President, AURP and Executive Director, Nebraska Innovation Campus Brian Darmody, CEO, Association of University Research Parks (AURP) Research Parks have evolved from the primary real-estate focused projects of the 1980s to integrated, mixed use innovation districts with universities, federal labs and corporate partnering spaces building innovation ecosystems. Learn how parks of the future are evolving and what it means for university-industry collaboration.
1:15–2 p.m.	Planning, Managing and Expanding Research Parks and Innovation Districts: How Do I Find the Funding? Kevin Byrne, President and CEO, The University Financing Foundation
2–2:50 p.m.	Designing for Collaborations and Collisions: The Importance of Thoughtful Design in Master Planning and Facility Construction Adam Ravestein, Ayers Saint Gross Patricia Bou, Cannon Design
2:50– 3 p.m.	BREAK
3–3:40 p.m.	Case Study: Purdue Research Park Paul Moses, Purdue University
3:40–4:10 p.m.	Case Study: Ga Tech Tech Square and Industry Collaboration Greg King, Georgia Tech
4:10–4:50 p.m.	Case Study: Landing an Innovation District: The National Landing/Amazon HQ2 Project in Greater Washington Region Peter Dougherty, Peter William Alex Iams, Arlington Economic Development
4:50 –5 p.m.	Wrap Up