Library of the Future

The Hunt Library

At the core of the vision for the Hunt Library is the ability for our students, faculty, and partners to immerse themselves in interactive computing, multimedia creation, and large-scale visualization—tools that are enabling revolutionary ways to see and use information.

Textiles of the Future

Wilson College of Textiles

The only college in the United States devoted entirely to textiles. Learn how we have transformed the textiles industry and tour the facilities where our industry partners come to innovate.

Food and Agriculture of the Future (FULL)

Lake Wheeler Field Laboratory

Today's farms are using technology and innovation to make data-driven decisions and to change the way crops are produced. This tour focuses on modernizing research stations and building future-ready farms.

Centennial Campus Guided Walking Tour

Join us on a one-hour guided walking tour of NC State's award-winning Centennial Campus. Learn about the history, layout and master plan of the campus. See how the campus is physically designed to increase creative collisions between students, faculty, corporate, and government employees. Comfortable walking shoes and attire are suggested.

Registration

Online registration is now closed however walk-in/on-site registration will still be available.

For questions regarding registration, please contact 803-777-9444 or confs@mailbox.sc.edu.
