

Present a UIDP Webinar

Share expertise.

Inspire collaboration.

Connect with peers.

Why Present?

UIDP webinars spotlight innovative practices and insights from experts across academia, industry, philanthropy, and government, including both members and nonmembers.

- Showcase thought leadership and real-world collaboration
- Engage a global audience of research and innovation professionals
- Contribute to UIDP's growing library of on-demand learning resources

Webinar Snapshot

DURATION

1 hour, including live audience Q&A

WHEN

Ideally Tuesdays-Thursdays, 11 a.m.-2 p.m. ET* (works well across time zones)

PLATFORM

Zoom, for seamless participation

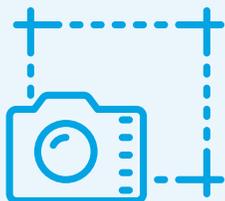

MODERATOR

UIDP-selected moderator guides the Q&A and general flow

ON-DEMAND

Most recordings posted on UIDP.org for ongoing access

Alternate timing may be arranged as appropriate*

Promotion & Preparation

4-6 WEEKS OUT

Plan the session with UIDP staff.

2-4 WEEKS OUT

UIDP and presenters promote through email and social channels (LinkedIn, X, Facebook).

1-2 WEEKS OUT

Speaker prep call to finalize logistics.

DAY OF

UIDP manages registration, hosting, and facilitation.

HOST PROVIDES

Speaker bios, headshots, and presentation slides. UIDP drafts the title and session description, with host input welcome.

Who Can Present?

UIDP member organizations, and in some cases, nonmembers, are invited to co-develop sessions that highlight research partnerships, funding models, or emerging collaboration practices. Joint sessions between university, industry, philanthropy, and government partners are encouraged.

Interested in presenting?

Contact
info@uidp.net

Learn more
uidp.org/webinars

Strengthening University-Industry
Partnerships